

Veriko Tchumburidze - Violin

Winner of the International Henryk Wieniawski Violin Competition

"I wholeheartedly recommend Veriko Tchumburidze as an exceptional violinist and an individual of the highest caliber." - Sol Gabetta

"She is a breath of future, she brings us closer to the world of her own imagination; we capture the sounds from her world with our senses and we truly appreciate her freshness and spontaneity." - Andrzej Wituski, Director of the International Henryk Wieniawski Violin Competition

"I particularly appreciate Veriko as a musician, technically always very well prepared, sensitive and ready to collaborate. She doesn't only play notes but always try to find the context behind the score to discover the real meaning of the music. This is my understanding of true musicians. Because music is more than just a perfect technique. Veriko knows where the music starts." - Maestro Andrey Boreyko

"The Georgian brought up in Turkey played the whole work (Shostakovich Violin Concerto No.1) as if in a trance, in one breath. She also did not allow us to breathe, showing the terror and dread conveyed in the music." - Volksblatt

Biography

Born into a Georgian family in Adana, southern Turkey, Veriko Tchumburidze initially trained at Mersin University State Conservatory with Selahattin Yunkus and Lily Tchumburidze.

In 2010 she has started to study in with Dora Schwarzberg at the MDW in Vienna as a scholar of the Young Musicians on World Stages (YMWS) project. Between 2015-2022, she studied at Prof. Ana Chumachenko's class and since 2022 she continues her second master's degree studies in chamber music with the Dirk Mommertz and Raphael Merlin at the Munich's Musikhochschule. She has also participated in the masterclasses of Albert Markov, Shlomo Mintz, and Igor Ozim, in the Seiji Ozawa Academy Masterclass and, also in Switzerland, the Verbier Festival Academy.

As a keen exponent of chamber music, she partners in recital with Pianists Ketevan Sepashvili and Mamikon Nakhapetov and was formerly a member of Trio Arte, a piano trio which in 2016 won first prize at the Pietro Argento International Music Competition in Gioia del Colle, Italy. 2016 also brought the world premiere at the Istanbul Music Festival of Ludus Modalis, a work dedicated to Trio Arte by the distinguished Turkish composer Özkan Manav. Since 2022, she has been a member of Trio Vecando, a piano trio.

In the highlights of 2026/27 season, Veriko Tchumburidze returns to the Gdańsk Music Festival, BlenioMusica and the Krzyżowa Music Festival. She appears for the first time at the Telavi International Music Festival, makes her debut at Dynamikfest Salzburg. A further highlight of the season is Veriko's debut at the Elbphilharmonie Hamburg. She will also give her soloist debut in Spain with the Orquesta Sinfónica del Principado de Asturias. Closely engaged with contemporary creation and composers, she will give the world premiere of Saturn Violin Concerto by Anastasia Laghidze at the Tbilisi Opera and Ballet. At BlenioMusica, she will also present the world premiere of a new work for solo violin and tape by Alexandre Kordzaia (Kordz), written for her.

Since 2016 Veriko Tchumburidze has played a Giambattista Guadagnini violin, made in Milan in 1756 and generously loaned by Deutsche Stiftung Musikleben.
